

YUNG HONORÉ

Hailing from the heart of Africa, Yung Honore is a modern musical phenomenon that blends Afro-pop, rap, and contemporary worship to share the uplifting message of Jesus Christ. Born Honore Musele Muyaka in 1992 in the Democratic Republic of Congo, he grew up in a Christian family under his father's guidance, Pastor Felix Muyaka. Settling in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, his family founded Living Together in Christ International Ministries.

Yung Honore's mission is to empower people to live "The God Life," embracing a divine mindset that reveals the inherent purpose and fulfillment within each individual. With an electrifying style, he's a pioneer in contemporary Christian music, with notable achievements including appearances at the Dove and Stellar Awards and his Billboard-charting album "Trophy Szn." Beyond music, Yung Honore is committed to outreach, mentoring, and community engagement. His bright future includes aspirations to reach thousands with the message of Christ, host The God Life Experiences, and continue his mission of inspiration. Yung Honore invites you to experience his unique blend of faith, culture, and music—a journey that promises to ignite spirits and leave a lasting impact wherever he performs!
